

BECOME A FRIEND OF ARTS IN THE CATHEDRAL

The mission of the Arts in the Cathedral program is "To Honor the Creator Through Creativity."

We offer a range of arts events that will provide opportunities for you and your family. We are always open to suggestions for future programming.

The Friends of the AITC are those who generously support our mission through financial gifts. As a Friend, your name is listed in the program books and you will be our guest at a special Friends Only afternoon event.

Penny L. Belden, President
Arts in the Cathedral

Events are free-will offering unless otherwise noted.

Church of the Saviour is

Family Dance

Cleveland Dance Connection

Susan Marino provides a fun dance party for all ages. She will offer some beginning warm-ups to get everyone loosened up, and will feature music from the 50's through current hip-hop selections if the group is interested. The electric slide may surface as well. Free event. Refreshment booth.

Friday, October 10, 2008
7:00-9:00 p.m.

Origami

Ginger Folds & Fine Arts

Origami Exhibit

Cleveland native Ginger (Lacki) Wankewycz graduated from Baldwin-Wallace College with a degree in Fine Arts in 2001. She participates in numerous juried art exhibits, and has had her work featured in many prominent local galleries and art publications.

Ginger will exhibit her fine art prints, origami designs and jewelry.

October 5-12, 2008

Origami Workshop

Join Ginger for an opportunity to learn origami and complete a project during this Saturday morning workshop. $5 materials fee; $10 family maximum.

Saturday, October 11, 2008
10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon

Magnus Mårtensson

A piano virtuoso with Victor Borge's humorous touch. Quite by accident in 2003, Swedish-born conductor Magnus Mårtensson turned into a comedian/pianist during a concert at Victor Borge Hall in New York City in front of an enthusiastic and encouraging audience that included members of Mr. Borge's family. Reception following the performance.

Sunday, October 12, 2008 3:00 p.m.
Tickets $10

Co-sponsored by the Nobel Monitor Lodge #130 of Swedish Vasa.

"Amahl & the Night Visitors"

by Gian Carlo Menotti

Only 45 minutes in length, this beloved Christmas story of a visit by the Three Kings to a poor widow and her son appeals to both children and adults. Sung in English by a professional cast.

Friday, December 12, 2008 7:30 p.m.
Sunday, December 14, 2008 3:00 p.m.
$8 adults and $4 youth (18 and under)

Westminster Choir

Westminster Choir College
Princeton, New Jersey

Joe Miller, Conductor.

The Westminster Choir has set the standard for choral excellence for 88 years. Recent tours include the United Kingdom, Korea and Taiwan, as well as the Colmar (France) International Music Festival. The Choir has been chorus-in-residence for the Spoleto Festival USA since 1977, performing both in concert and as the opera chorus. The Choir was also the chorus-in-residence for the Festival of Two Worlds in Spoleto, Italy for 23 years.

Thursday, January 8, 2009 7:30 p.m.
Tickets $10

Co-sponsored by the Church of the Saviour Foundation and Cleveland Chapter, American Guild of Organists.

Heights Chamber Orchestra

Founded in 1983, the 40-member Heights Chamber Orchestra includes both professional musicians such as retired Cleveland Orchestra violinist Gino Raffaelli and local amateur musicians. Anthony Addison, Resident Conductor, previously headed the Opera Theater program at CIM for 17 years and headed the Interlochen Summer Opera Theater for five years. He was the founder of Cleveland Lyric Opera.
